Story-Telling

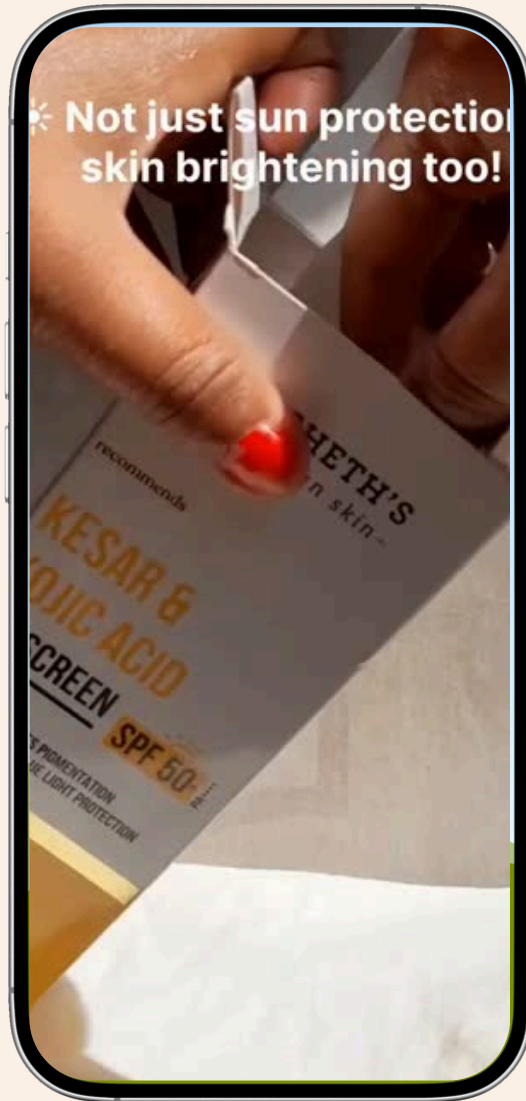

Brand Collaboration

Aqualogica

I have had the opportunity to collaborate with Aqualogica, promoting their Glow+ Hydra Gel Moisturizer and Glow+ Dewy Sunscreen. As a beauty content creator, I love working with brands that prioritize skincare and hydration, and Aqualogica's innovative, lightweight formulations perfectly align with my passion for glowing, healthy skin.

Brand Collaboration

 DR. SHETH'S
- for indian skin -

DR.SHETH'S

I collaborated with Dr. Sheth's to create engaging UGC content featuring their Kesar & Kojic Acid Sunscreen and Lip Balm. My content focused on showcasing the product's key ingredients, benefits, and real-life application through high-quality visuals and storytelling. I highlighted how the sunscreen provides protection with added brightening benefits, while the lip balm deeply nourishes and hydrates.

Brand Collaboration

Purna Gummies

I have had opportunity to collaborate with Purna Gummies to create UGC content featuring their Pretty Women Gummies. I highlighted the key ingredients, benefits, and real-life application through engaging visuals. The content focused on educating my audience about the gummies' beauty-enhancing properties while aligning with the brand's wellness aesthetic. This partnership helped increase awareness and interest in their product

Brand Collaboration

HealthFab

HealthFab

I collaborated with HealthFab to create UGC content featuring their GoPadFree Period Panties. I highlighted the comfort, absorbency, and eco-friendly benefits of the product through engaging visuals. The content aimed to educate my audience about the advantages of using sustainable period care solutions while aligning with the brand's focus on comfort and innovation. This collaboration helped raise awareness and interest in their period panties.
